This week had a really great selection of entries. I had to eliminate some entries that I thought everyone should read in order to get down to five. Be sure to read the comments, often they are just as valuable as the entry.

- Backslash is NOT a path separator! (Sean Corfield, May 20)
- varScoper 1.20 - critical update (Mike Schieberl, May 20)
- ColdFusion 8 Wins Codie Award (Ben Forta, May 21)
- Does ColdFusion's Cost Inhibit Its Development? (Brian Rinaldi, May 22)
- Do I Suck Because I Don't Use Frameworks? (Scott Bennett, May 23)
